Standing ovations greet gala Overture

The performing arts community in Haliburton County was basking in the lime light last week.

The reason for all the attention was the opening of the new theatre, the Northern Lights Performing Arts Pavilion. The theatre was christened with four gala performances featuring over 200 entertainers from across the county. The production drew rave reviews from those in attendance. The two and a half hour show, called Northern Lights Overture, featured a cross-section of performing arts talent including singing, dancing, acting and instrumental music. The crowning moment for the Overture came with the grand finale. Shoulder to shoulder, the entire cast of the show squeezed onto the stage, singing the closing number, Applause, Applause. Before the last note had died away, the audience had leapt to its feet, saluting the performers with a thunderous standing ovation.

The spectacular show was mounted to mark the official opening of the new performing arts space. The former girls' gymnasium, which had served as the community stage for years, has been completely renovated. With 226 theatre-style seats arrayed on tiers, a new stage, sound and lighting systems and booth, dressing rooms and many other features, the theatre provides the county with a modern performing arts facility.

The theatre was built through public subscription with businesses and individuals endowing seats in the facility. All but ten of the seats in the new theatre were sponsored by various individuals, groups and corporations. (Organizers expect that those seats will be sponsored quickly now that the theatre is open.) The Performing Arts Society, which worked with Trillium Lakeland District School Board to create the theatre, also received support

A spotlight silhouettes Lorelyn Morgan as she directs the entire ensemble in the grand finale to the Northern Lights Overture. The show, featuring performing artists from throughout the county, played to four sold-out audiences last week and marked the official opening of the Northern Lights Performing Arts Pavilion at Haliburton Highlands Secondary School.

Bob Walli gets the top cop job

by Jerry Grozelle

CPAC Chair Jim McMahon, congratulates Staff Sergeant Bob Walli on his appointment to the Haliburton Highlands Detachment.

The Haliburton Highlands Detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police has a new commander. Bob Walli was appointed staff sergeant of the new detachment last week.

The 14-year veteran of the OPP started his career in Dowling, north of Sudbury. After two years in Dowling, he transferred to Killarney, at the north-east end of Georgian Bay, where he remained for five years. From there, Walli went to Cobourg, which was later realigned and named the Northumberland Detachment.

Walli has been the acting staff sergeant of the Minden-Coboconk Detachment since February 15.

He was the successful candidate from among the five who were interviewed for the staff sergeant position.

Walli, his wife Carole and their three children (two boys, aged seven and nine and a girl, aged 11) are looking forward to the move to Haliburton County. The Walli family members are outdoors enthusiasts. Bob said they are looking forward to skiing and he plans to "get back into hunting and fishing" when he's settled in the Highlands. He also enjoys curling and helping out with junior curling.

Getting the new Haliburton Highlands Detachment stand-alone organized will be the first big challenge.

"The public won't see any major changes," he said, "but, internally,

LOOMING AHEAD: Claire MacLeod, left, Jean Farrell and Jean Bolt thread the warp onto this 100 inch loom, which is now set up at Pritchard House in Minden. The loom is on loan to Haliburton Highlands Hand Weavers and Spinners, from the provincial association, and will be available for use for the next year. This long loom requires two weavers, sitting beside each other, to pass the shuttle down its length. Pritchard House currently houses a display of locally made shawls and scarves, until June 24. On June 26 a display of hand woven tea towels will be exhibited.

Charges laid after cache of auto parts found in Lutterworth

The following report was compiled by the Minden/Coboconk detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police.

Two men have been arrested in connection with a police raid that uncovered $250,000 worth of stolen auto parts in Lutterworth Township.

The Ontario Provincial Police Street Crime Unit, along with the Auto Squad division of the Hamilton/Wentworth Regional Police Service executed two search warrants at a residence in Lutterworth Township. Officers seized roughly $250,000 worth of stolen auto parts, including engines, transmissions, frames and doors.

As a result of the investigation, Brian Hounsell, 57 of no fixed address was held in custody until his bail hearing in Lindsay court on June 21. David Hounsell, 23, of Carlisle, Ontario was charged and released. He will appear in Minden court on July 7.

New home for performing arts in the Highlands from the provincial government. Each evening before the audience entered the theatre, a short ceremony in the lobby recognized those who worked to make the theatre a reality.

The Northern Lights Overture was created to introduce the new theatre and it did so in spectacular style. Produced by Curtis Eastmure and Chris Lynd, showcased talented individuals and groups from across the county. The performance, under the direction of Barrie Wood, was fast-paced, thoroughly entertaining and a definite hit with the audience. The show included such diverse groups as: the Highlands Brass Quintet; fiddle duets by Brian and William Tink; the Highland Twirlers square dancers; the Haliburton County Children's Choir; vocal duets by John Miller and Lindsey Coates and Miller with Cathy Cox; an excerpt from the play The Importance of Being Earnest by members of the Highlands Little Theatre; a routine by the members of Haliburton Dance Arts; the Haliburton Messiah Choir; the Highlands Wind Symphony; the Gentlemen of Song; Highland dances from the Mansfield School of Dance; the Scottish Country Dancers; the HHSS Red Hawk Theatre Company; a piano duet by Lauren McInnes and Melissa Stephens; and a Gershwin medley by show director Barrie Wood and his wife Lorelyn Morgan, both professional performers.

Four players appeared at various intervals during the evening. Dubbed the Players in Waiting, their four skits, written by Barrie Wood, recounted the community's search for a performing arts space, culminating with the opening of the new theatre.

A six piece orchestra added musical accompaniment throughout the performance.

Prior to the opening, the Haliburton Highlands Silver Flute Band marched to the theatre entrance and entertained members of the audience as they arrived for the performance. The HHSS Flute Choir entertained in the lobby before the theatre doors were opened and during intermission.

Those attending the four sold-out performances were treated to refreshments during intermission and a reception following the show. Utilizing the new cafeteria adjacent to the theatre, the reception provided an opportunity for audience and cast members to mingle following the performance.

Co-producer Chris Lynd was obviously pleased with the way the Theatre and Overture had come together. "What a great way to celebrate the depth of performing arts talent in the county," Lynd said following the performance Thursday evening. "When you see all these people together in one place singing, dancing and playing their hearts out, it is truly amazing."

Co-producer Curtis Eastmure agreed, noting that the new theatre should encourage increased interest in the performing arts. "We now have a theatre that is both comfortable for the audience and provides a flexible working space for performers. This is something we have wanted for years and finally, here it is."

Both producers praised Barrie Wood for his hard work in co-ordinating the more than 200 performers who took part in the show and the more than 60 individuals who worked back stage or helped with the organization of the performances.

"This was truly a community event," Eastmure said. "I think it signals that the performing arts are alive and well in Haliburton County."

Dysart council delays decision on DyMO bus

The following report is a summary of some of the items discussed at the June 14 regular meeting of the municipal council of Dysart et al.

DyMO bus gets one month reprieve

Dysart council has decided to maintain the DyMO bus for an additional month, in order to determine its usage and viability in the community.

Reeve Murray Fearrey noted that the decision to end the DyMO funding by June was made by council in November of 1998. The municipality established the bus to allow Dysart residents who fit specific special needs criteria, to travel to doctors' appointments or outings. "We should no longer be in the transportation business," said Fearrey. Council had looked into a partnership with the private sector, but due to the repairs needed, the council hadn't had much luck in locating a partner. Council agreed that the bus did need repairs, but most were to the body of the vehicle. Mechanically, the bus was still in relatively good shape.

Bill Davis reviewed the status of the Transportation Committee, which has created a shuttle bus service, as well as a system of linking drivers with Haliburton County residents who have no other means of transportation. The committee is part of the County's Strategic Planning process and was created out of a need for a system of transportation in the area. There had been discussion in the past about using the DyMO bus for the transportation committee, but currently, the committee is using a private company to run a shuttle bus from Harcourt, Tory Hill, Godderham, Haliburton and Minden.

Barb Menzies, representing Extendicare, stated that many people do not realize how much use the DyMO bus gets. Menzies said that many Extendicare residents use the bus to travel to the hospital, instead of tying up an ambulance for a relatively simple transfer. She also noted that the bus was designed to help those with special mobility needs to travel, and that through the Transportation Committee would it be available to anyone, with or without the need for an accessible bus.

After much discussion it was decided to extend the DyMO funding for one month and to re-establish the DyMO committee, a committee of council, to look at which groups were using the service, and what partnerships could be formed to keep the bus running. This committee includes Barb Menzies and Dysart Ward Five Councillor Dan Kay.

Concerns over Stand alone OPP

Deputy Reeve Bill Davis is concerned about the process used to select the new commander of the Haliburton Highlands Detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police. He stated that although he was a member of the Community Police Advisory Committee, was not informed of the meeting to appoint the staff sergeant. Both he and Reeve Murray Fearrey felt that communication would have to improve to include all municipal partners. "It's the only way we will have more control," said Davis.

Tax Receipts

Council approved a motion that will allow charitable tax receipts through the municipality to be issued for the Drag River Rehabilitation Project, as well as the West Guilford Community Centre fund to make the facility wheelchair accessible. The receipts will be issued for donations over $100.

BRAVO!

Editorial

The standing ovations and sustained applause which followed each performance of the Northern Lights Performing Arts Pavilion Gala openings last week were testaments to the depth and breadth of talent which we enjoy in this county. The accolades continued long after the curtain closed, at the reception and later out on the streets. Everyone who was lucky enough to obtain a ticket had nothing but praise for the show they had witnessed.

The gala showcased a full spectrum of talent covering virtually all of the performing arts. The stage was alive with our friends and neighbours who were keen to share their special talents with the community. The cast of over 200, almost equal to the number of patrons who viewed each of the four galas, included performers of all ages. They captured the audience's heart with their skills, enthusiasm and obvious dedication.

While all performers deserve credit for the hard work and effort put into their portion of the evening, a great deal of credit must also go to Barrie Wood. He has been working with the Gala Committee, stitching together the many groups and individuals, developing what was essentially a variety show. A professional, who has appeared in some of the leading shows in North America, Wood relished the opportunity to work near his home. He also faced the considerable challenge of melding together disparate groups of amateur participants into a cohesive program. By the end of the evening there was little doubt he had succeeded in what for many would have been a monumental task.

There was another star on display during the gala performances:

the new Northern Lights Performing Arts Pavilion. This facility has long been the dream of many performing arts groups in the Highlands. These people seized the opportunity presented by major renovations at the high school to turn it into reality. Hard work, some serious fund-raising with enthusiastic community support, negotiations with the school board and others have paid off handsomely. The theatre is a facility which will be the envy of communities throughout rural Ontario. The facility stands as a testament to the vision of those in the performing arts community who persisted in their dream and bodes well for the future of stage productions in the Highlands.

So, a well-deserved standing ovation to those who christened this facility with such enthusiasm last week and hats off to those who helped to make the theatre a reality.

Bears

Editor:

I wondered when the first stories of nuisance bears would hit the papers.

The problems have just started folks. With the new spring bear hunting ban in place, all the male cubs are going to be allowed to become very large and potentially very dangerous full grown boars. Doors and windows will not keep a hungry bear from coming into your home or cottage if he thinks food is on the other side. They are only an inconvenience to them.

I hope more mature thought is put into this. I don't hunt myself but I see this as an anti-hunting and not a pro bear issue.

Editor:

On behalf of the County Town Museum Committee, I would like to extend my thanks to those who helped make our annual yard sale a success.

We truly appreciate the many contributions from the community and those who came to support us in spite of the terrible heat. I must particularly acknowledge the extraordinary efforts of AHM's Tom Carlton, Gerald Bull and Clayton Cameron who hauled and set up tables and hoisted truckloads of boxes - we just couldn't have done it without you!

Minden's County Town Museum is a special place - many thanks to you all for your support.

Sorry

This letter to Guy Scott, Councillor for Galway-Cavendish and Harvey Townships

Dear Guy:

Please accept my sincerest apologies for the fact that your name was missed in The Guide to the Services of Peterborough County.

By way of explanation, I can assure you that your name was included in the original drafts - in fact it was in there twice. When we had it edited by our designer, instead of taking it out once, it appeared as though we were asking to have both names removed.

Christine Lang of the guide committee has assured me that she has taken note of this unfortunate oversight and will ensure that it is correct in the next version. I sincerely hope this does not cause you any inconvenience.

Veteran's grave site gets marker after 35 years

A special ceremony was held June 9 at the Maple Lake Church to honour a World War I veteran.

Sergeant George Thickett enlisted on October 30, 1915. He served in the Canadian Light Horse Infantry, the Service Squadron, the First Hussars (B Squadron), The Canadian Corps and the Canadian Expeditionary Force (in France).

Thickett was awarded a Bravery in the Field Medal.

Born in England in 1894, Thickett moved to Canada when he was 12 years old. After returning from the war, he worked for the Toronto Transit Commission until he retired in 1956. He moved to Maple Lake with the Sawyer family and lived there until his death in 1963. He was buried at the Maple Lake Cemetery.

Deloris Bailey initiated the process to have a marker placed at George Thickett's grave site. She said Thickett was like a second father to her. He lived with Clare and Josephine Sawyer, Bailey's parents, until his death, when she was in her late teens.

"I felt bad that his grave hadn't been marked," Bailey said.

She contacted Dave McAdam at the Minden Legion, who turned the project over to Bob Hurrle. Contacting the Legion's Last Post Fund, Hurrle presented the details and approval was given for a stone to mark George Thickett's final resting place.

Arrangements were made for a ceremony at the Maple Lake Cemetery, with members of the Minden Legion Branch 636 paying tribute to Thickett with an honour guard. Legion Pastor Merv Everall performed the service.

"I was overwhelmed with what the Legion has done," Bailey said.

She commended Bob Hurrle for his efforts and for keeping her informed throughout the process, which took several months.

Minden Legion President Maurice Winterflood, Deloris Bailey, Legion Padre Merv Everall and Legion Veteran Service Officer Bob Hurrle, took part in the service to honour veteran George Thickett.

It's probably escaped your notice until now, but 1999 marks the 100th anniversary of many wonderful things. It was a century ago that the world first saw the famous painting 'La Modiste' by Toulouse-Lautrec.

Puccini's opera 'Tosca' was first performed in 1899.

The American author Thomas Wolfe was born a hundred years ago; Oscar Wilde died in the same year.

Oh yes...and dental floss. The world was given the gift of dental floss exactly 100 years ago.

My crack team of researchers was unable to determine which recreationally-challenged mouth-jockey it was who discovered this peculiar brand of dental torture, but the reference books agree - it occurred in 1899.

Which by my reckoning means that we've all been suffering Dental Guilt for ten straight decades.

Because let's be honest, folks: we don't floss. Not every day, day in, day out, morning, noon and night, the way our dentists tell us we must.

We floss religiously one half hour before we keep our regular dental appointment, and for anywhere from one day to one week afterward.

Then, the dreary chore of jamming one's fingers into one's gob and trying to force a slippery piece of string around the eighth bicuspid gets to be too onerous to bear. The floss dispenser goes back into the bowels of the medicine cabinet and we forget about it until our next dental appointment. Well...sort of forget about it. We suffer sporadic guilt pangs.

I know I'll get mail - a couple of dozen indignant letters from readers who insist they do, too, floss fervently after every snack. Okay - 24 Canadians floss their teeth correctly. The rest of us are backsliders.

It's hard to say exactly why - I doubt that anyone contests the fact that Flossing Is Good For Your Teeth. Studies have shown that mouthwash, tooth brushes or the corner of a matchbook just can't match the simple efficiency of giving every peg in your head a brisk rubdown with a piece of floss. We avoid it at our peril: non-flossing leads to such Cronenburgian horrors as gingivitis, gum recession and jawbone decay - not to mention bad breath, yellow fangs and eventually dentures - and yet we resist flossing.

It's partly an image thing. It is very hard to look cool—even to yourself - when you've got both hands in your mouth up to the knuckles, sawing away at a back tooth.

And it's not something you want to witness in public. I remember watching a couple of yuppies in a Toronto restaurant who, after their meal, deftly whipped out identical floss dispensers and started buffing their choppers, hoovering chunks of Fettucine Alfredo all over the tablecloth.

Not a pretty sight.

But it's no more attractive when some businessman hauls out a handkerchief, buries his beak in it and proceeds to honk like a drug-addled goose. We accept that without a peep. Why are we so down on flossing?

I asked my dentist about it one time. He'd just finished giving me my semi-annual dental roto-rooting and was delivering the post-traumatic litany about the importance of Regular Flossing.

"Aw, come on, Jim" I whined. "Flossing such a pain. Don't try to tell me I hafta floss every tooth in my head every day of my life?"

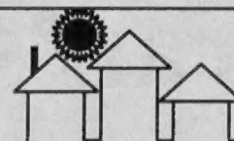

"Of course, not" he purred. "Don't worry about flossing every last one of them, for heaven sake."

"Just floss the ones that you want to keep."

Everybody wins at Jenna Tompkins Memorial

The annual Jenna Tompkins Memorial Slo-Pitch Tournament continues to grow, prompting organizers to consider expanding to allow more teams to participate. The event raises funds for the Minden Hospital Building Fund. Watch The Times next week for details on tournament play and the amount raised. Organizers consider the 1999 tournament a tremendous success.

PULLING YOUR WEIGHT: Dan Garbutt hauls with all his might at the 12th annual Minden Kinsmen Truck Pull Saturday. A variety of trucks, from 4X2's to tractors, competed in the annual event, as well as the Show and Shine contest for pickup trucks and big rigs. This year's event was dedicated to the memory of Marg Prentice, who contributed much effort to the annual event's success.

SPLASH DOWN: This canoeist made his way through the slalom course at the Minden Whitewater Preserve during the open practice for the Minden Cup. The annual kayak and canoe race saw competitors from far and wide to challenge their skills in the surging white water.

Relaxing, healthy and competitive

by Jim Hindle

Lawn bowling is a great, relaxing and healthy form of entertainment that can be enjoyed by all ages. There is, however, a keen sense of competitiveness which, along with good sportsmanship, has appealed to a great many people.

Good manners are apparent when you see opposing team members shake hands both before and after each game. Both sides also applaud a good shot made by either team.

Like all sports, it takes skill and experience to calculate the precise amount of curve and the exact speed of the bowl in order to execute a perfect shot. In this way, it is very similar to curling. Like curling, nobody can be expert all the time. The main thing is to have fun, along with the competitiveness and enjoy the friendly companionship.

So, come out and try lawn bowling. New members are always welcome. You can watch league players in action at the Minden Curling Club on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday mornings from 10 to noon and every evening, Monday to Thursday, from 7 to 9. Friday evening is a fun night, with refreshments. Everyone is welcome.

SID STAMP FUELS LTD.

Business Profile

After 37 years in business, Sid Stamp Fuels in Minden has earned a reputation for expert service and quality Shell products.

"We are proud to be associated with Shell Oil," owner Brian Black stated. "The name is known worldwide for quality and it is a pleasure to represent them in this area."

Residents in the Highlands will recognize the clean white, red and yellow trucks which deliver home heating oil throughout the area. Utilizing a computer program which tracks the 'degree days' through the heating season, the staff at Sid Stamp Fuels can monitor the needs of their customers. The program identifies the tanks that need filling. As the season progresses, and trucks are dispatched to ensure customers will not be caught without the fuel they need.

As well, four licensed home heating mechanics are available to ensure that your oil burner is operating at maximum efficiency. A 24 emergency service is also available.

Sid Stamp Fuels Ltd., located at the intersection of Highways #121 and #35 in Minden, offers 24 hour card lock gas pumps.

One of the most popular features at Sid Stamp Fuels is the 24 hour card lock gas pumps. Located at the busy Highway 35 and 121 intersection in Minden, drivers who register and receive an identity card can top up their tanks any time of the day or night. This service is great for truckers or those on the move early in the day or late at night, when all other gas stations are closed.

Sid Stamp Fuels also supplies eleven Shell Services Stations throughout Haliburton County and northern Victoria County.

Truckers, contractors and pilots also rely on Sid Stamp Fuels for a complete line of Shell lubricants, hydraulic fluids and aviation oil.

Recognizing there is more than one way to heat a home, Sid Stamp Fuels also sells wood and propane stoves by Napoleon. If you are thinking of adding one of these heating appliances to your home, you are invited to visit the newly expanded showroom to examine the various models available. The fully licenced mechanics can ensure that your new heating appliance is installed correctly and safely.

Brian and his staff of nine look forward to assisting customers from throughout the area with their home heating and industrial oil needs. Drop by for a visit at Highway 35 and 121 in Minden or call Sid Stamp Fuels at 705-286-1088.

HCACL annual general meeting

Ways and means

It was reported that the Haliburton County Association for Community Living has raised $1,260.80 through its Dare to Ski and Flowers for Hope campaigns. It had also received $680 in donations.

Home town stories

Several volunteers, clients and others made presentations on their work with HCACL and what it entails. HHSS student Amanda McClenaghan discussed her involvement with the Lunch Buddy Program. It matches HHSS students with participants in the HCACL. The pairs spend time with each other and get to know each other ensuring that all students are included in the high school community. There are about 45 HHSS students and students at Fenelon Falls Secondary School participating in the program.

McClenaghan and one of her lunch buddies, Dustin, said that they both enjoy the program and felt that it was a very worthwhile experience. "We buddy up at lunch and we get together and share an activity or game," said McClenaghan.

Amy Brandon, who will be taking over the program for McClenaghan, thanked Amanda for her work. "I hope I can fill her shoes," said Brandon. Amy and her lunch buddy Lisa spoke positively about the program.

Several other presentations were made, including a report from outreach worker Bonnie Roe, parent Ellen Baird, and volunteers who expressed appreciation for the association's work.

Awards of excellence

who have been involved with the association. The awards recognized those who had dedicated many years of service to HCACL. Recipients included:

Employees: Holly Archer, Jeanette Gilbert, Elena Bjelis, Lisa Stephenson, Arlen Hearn, Barb Woolley and Shelly Sills.

Over 20 years: Ross Anderson, Dave Irwin, Dale Jarvis, and Robert Nimigon.

15 to 20 years: Helen Bobinski, Doug Johnson, Carol Lefebvre, Stan

Packard, Barry Stromberg and Jerry Corby.

10 to 15 years: Jack Easton, Robin Fletcher, Gloria Kent, Gerald McKnight, and James Meldrum.

5 to 10 years: Jamie Voss and Roberta Shillings.

HCACL also recognized the important work done by two outgoing board members, Ray Selbie and Louise Sisson. Cheryl Curry thanked them for their work.

Man charged following assault

Both men have been charged with possession of stolen property over $5000. The investigation will continue and according to OPP, it is anticipated that further charges may be laid.

Boating collision on Gull Lake update

On June 12, officers from the Minden/Coboconk Detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police were called to Gull Lake in Lutterworth Township at 11:30 p.m., after cottagers on the lake reported a loud crashing noise.

Two boats had collided in the middle of Gull Lake. Cottage owners went out onto the lake in boats and pulled Sean Sullivan, 20 of Markham, out of the water. Sullivan's boat had sunk.

The other boat was driven by Randy Larson, 50, of Port Perry. With Larson were his daughter Deena, 15 and Jack, 11. The trio managed to get to shore of Sugar Island, despite severe damage to their boat.

The Larsons were taken to Minden hospital where they were treated and released. Sean Sullivan was air lifted to Sunnybrook Hospital in Toronto where he underwent surgery for a broken leg. The investigation is continuing.

Male charged with assault

A 27 year-old male was charged with assault after an incident on Highland Street in Haliburton. The man was charged after allegedly assaulting a 17 year-old woman. The woman, who was known to the family, was walking with the man's child. After a verbal altercation, the male allegedly pushed the female to the ground. The man was arrested and charged with two counts of assault and uttering death threats. He was held in custody, pending a bail hearing on June 18.

Break, enter and thefts

On June 11, police investigated a break and enter at the Minden Cable TV office on Highway 121, in Minden Township. The location was secured on June 10 in the afternoon. It was found that the next day, the control room padlock had been pried off. Stolen was a Sony video camera, a Toshiba laptop computer, a radio and a Samsung Television monitor.

OPP looked into a break and enter at a cottage on Sugar Island on Gull Lake, but is unknown if anything had been taken.

Police also investigated a break-in at a cottage on Humphrey Road in Lutterworth Township. The investigation revealed that the sliding glass door had been damaged. Stolen was a quantity of liquor and a portable Denon AM/FM CD player.

The same day, police looked into a break-in on Trooper Lake Road in Glamorgan Township. Stolen was a television and VCR.

On June 12, a quantity of liquor was stolen from a cottage on Spencer Trail in Galway Township.

A Hall's Lake Road cottage in Stanhope Township was broken into, however nothing was taken.

On June 13, police investigated a break-in at a Salmon Lake Road cottage in Somerville Township. It is unknown if any items were stolen.

The same day police looked into a break-in at a cottage on North Shore Road in Stanhope Township. A basement screen window had been removed and a stereo had been taken.

Police looked into a break-in at the Royal Canadian Legion in Coboconk. It was discovered that the basement door had been pried open, but it was unclear if anything had been taken.

Two cottages on Bass Lake Road in Galway Township. Police investigated and found that the doors had been pried open. Wine was stolen from one cottage but it was unclear if anything had been taken from the other.

Walli family eagerly anticipates move to Haliburton Highlands

there is a lot of work to be done."

By the end of July, four sergeants will be serving the Haliburton Highlands Detachment. Rick Googh, Dave Fletcher, who was recently promoted to sergeant and Phil Bronson, who transferred from Parry Sound, will be working from the local detachment as of the first of July and a fourth will join the force by the end of July.

Fletcher and Googh have both worked with the Minden-Coboconk Detachment for several years. The competition for the fourth sergeant position is currently in progress.

Walli said the change to a stand-alone Haliburton Highlands Detachment will improve the quality of service.

"I'm really happy to be here," he said. "It's a new community and a new challenge."

Five year-old not the criminal type

It seems the photo of five year-old Les Bailey holding two braggin' sized largemouth bass in last week's issue of The Times created quite a stir with a few of our readers. No, we didn't get calls from envious anglers wanting to know the lake from which these lunkers were caught

It was the folks at the Ministry of Natural Resources who got a few calls from concerned readers. The callers questioned the legality of the fish in the photo. Our astute readers happen to be cognizant of the fact that the 1999 bass season doesn't open until the last Saturday of June, which is the 26th this year.

Rest assured, Les is not a criminal! The photo, and the fish, were taken in 1998, during the open season for bass.

We're happy to know that our readers are aware of the aware of the open seasons for the denizens of our local waterways.

POMP & CIRCUMSTANCE: The festive atmosphere was not just confined to inside the new Northern Lights Performing Art Pavilion last week. Each day before the performance the Haliburton Highlands Silver Flutes band marched to the theatre entrance. The group then performed outside the as patrons gathered for the opening ceremonies.

BUILDING MEMORIES: While most students were gathering autographs in their year books last week, Haliburton Highlands Secondary School Student Dennis Collins, of Wilberforce, found a different way to collect his school memories. Rather than have them write something in his year book, Dennis had his friends sign his "year brick". He isn't certain what he is going to do with the brick, now covered with names of friends and classmates, but Dennis is sure he has a unique souvenir of his grade 11 year at HHSS.

Water levels continue to hold

The following report was prepared by the Parks Canada Peterborough office of Trent Severn Waterway on June 15.

The weekend of June 12 and 13 was hot, but did not result in a large decline in lake levels. Some areas had been without rain for 12 days, but the carry-over effects of the previous rainfalls were still being felt.

Haliburton Lakes, which had risen to 90.8% on June 10, declined a bit over the rest of the week to an average of 88.3% of maximum level. This was still a little higher than 1998 at this time.

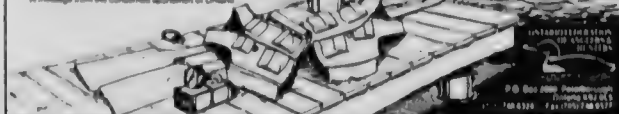

The Kawartha lakes have a small surplus remaining and the outflow is back down to much less than the June average.

The level of Simcoe-Couchiching was down by less than a centimetre over the week and still about 15 centimetres less than full level. At this time of the year it is usually a few centimetres above the full level.

It's always tempting...but It's always tempting to simply jump in the boat and go, but take a moment to ensure your safety. Take along all the safety equipment the law requires. Check the weather forecast before you leave the dock. Tell someone where you are going and when you expect to return. Leave the alcohol on shore.

A message from the concerned operators of Ontario

Trail ride will benefit VCARS

A trail ride June 27 will help raise funds for the volunteer organization which assists victims of crimes and crisis in Victoria and Haliburton County. Beaver Meadow Foxhounds Hunt Club is hosting the Ride-a-thon.

Riders and horses will leave Ostler Park Equestrian Centre on County Road 37 in Somerville Township at 10:30 a.m. The riders will continue southbound to the village of Fenelon Falls, where they will parade up Bolton Street to The Biggest Little Rental store.

Funds raised will support the Victim Crisis Referral Service of Victoria and Haliburton. VCARS volunteers, with the assistance of the St. John Ambulance and officers from the Minden/Coboconk Detachment of the OPP, will participate with the riders on their journey. Adieu: Student reporter leaves with pack of memories

by Andrea Hughes, HHSS student reporter

Hello, all readers, it's Andrea here and I know it's been about a million years since I last wrote anything since I have been insanely busy, but I am writing this article as my farewell to writing at The Times, and to HHSS because, as some people know, I am graduating.

Things at HHSS are happy and hot. Everyone's been hanging out outside, wearing tank tops (ha ha ha! take that, school rules!) listening to music and dancing. Today we had a dance party in the OAC hall, practicing John Travolta dance moves which some of us were surprisingly good at. The remaining contents of our school's eight Coke machines (yes, eight, it's disgusting but true) were being sold off from a giant shopping cart, operated by Clay, the pop machine guy. It was a jovial atmosphere, one brought about because there are only a few more days until summer vacation begins.

As I write this, the new theatre will soon be opened and a lot of high school students are volunteering at the gala, whether they're in performances or doing lighting or moving the piano, they're putting in a ton of hours (definitely more than they had originally thought). See, high school students are dedicated.

My Biology class has been checking the Haliburton County lakes and found that the walleye we built the spawning beds for are alive and well.

Our two new SAC co-captains are Devon Dart and Amy Brandon, chosen in an election last week, and our grade 12 valedictorian is Sarah Burke, while the OAC valedictorian is Logan Percy. I expect a good speech, dance, mime show...stuff is moving on and I can't even remember the date of our graduation, which could be why I keep getting harassed by certain grad organizers for not attending the grad fundraisers.

It was a pretty good year, one which went very fast, and although everyone always says this, it's true. It's amazing how you can think you know everyone after four years in a small school, but then still manage to meet so many great people in just one year.

Everyone seems to be happy about the year ending. I can't say I feel any pangs about leaving high school as of yet. Sometimes it's just time to move on. It is strange to think of everyone who's graduating scattering all over Ontario, Canada and the world. Some of my good friends are going to be in England, while many will be in Toronto (yay, Doug and Allison!) only a subway ride away from me (I'm going to York University for Fine Arts- nope, not journalism- just in case anyone's interested) and my best friend since the age of one, Helen, the gala piano mover, will still be at HHSS because she's a year younger than me and still has a year of high school to go. Not to mention my other friends who will still be at HHSS...Kaija, Micah, Dan Craig...okay, the sadness is kicking in a little, I forgot how much I would miss everyone.

I can't say what will come. I'm frightened I'll get a roommate who hates me. I'm afraid of becoming malnourished from meal plan food. I had a dream that all they served in the York cafeteria was fried eggs and that to get to the second floor of the residence you had to go up escalators that had no steps and everyone was falling off. I'm sure that, except for the egg and escalator thing, these are fairly common worries. Not only am I worried, but my mom has decided that I can only go to university if I'm armed with a cell phone, personal alarm and bodyguard at all times. So this is the state that I, and probably many other graduating students, am in now.

Anyway, I've had a great year reporting for The Times. There's something really wonderful about writing and having some place to publish what you've written. There's a lot to be said for self-expression. So thanks to Jack and all the great people at The Times with their Smartfood and Celtic jingles, thanks for telling me every time I've come in how to save my files the right way. It's been swell. I was searching for the right expression, but I just couldn't find it.

Farewell, Andrea

Road problems in Somerville

The following report is a summary of some of the items discussed at the June 14 meeting of the Somerville Municipal Council.

Communication breakdown

Roads Superintendent Pat Russell reported problems with the roads department radio communication system. Russell stated that he now uses his cellular phone to talk with the office, and that his workers have no way of communicating at all. He noted that communication had been a problem ever since the antenna was moved from a high area, to Burnt River. He estimated that the antenna was at least one hundred feet lower than it had been. Reeve Austin suggested speaking with the fire department to see if it was having a similar difficulty. Council could not determine why the decision was made to move the antenna in the first place.

Garbage a problem on Nevison Road

Reeve Dianne Austin informed council and Roads Superintendent Pat Russell that garbage has become a problem at the Nevison Road pick-up site. Austin said that washing machines had been left at the side of the road and that broken glass was strewn about, which could cause a hazard to anyone dropping off garbage at the depot. "I've never seen anything like this. The broken glass is disgusting. It's terrible," said Austin.

Russell stated crews had already cleaned up the area several times this year, but a worker would be sent to do another clean-up as soon as possible.

Road complaints

Council will notify the Victoria County Roads Department that several roads are in poor condition. County roads 42, 43, as well as Buller and Nevison Roads have already developed large potholes, despite the work the county has done. According to Pat Russell, the roads should have received a layer double high float, 35 feet in from County road 45.

Turning trash into treasures

It has been said that one man's trash is another man's treasure. Bargain hunters will be able to test this theory on June 26 in Haliburton at what is being touted as the World's Biggest Treasure and Trash sale.

The Dysart Recreation Committee came up with the idea, to hold a sale that will run the length of the boardwalk in Head Lake Park, hopefully making it the world's largest. There are over fifty vendors onboard, with many more spaces available. There is a $20 fee to set up a booth, which will go toward various Recreation Committee projects and facilities. Vendors may keep all of the proceeds from their sales. As well, the Haliburton Search and Rescue will be on hand to help move larger items. Parking will be available at the high school.

"Box up your junk and come out to the sale," said Recreation Committee member and Dysart Councillor Nancy Roberts. "You will have a much bigger audience here than a regular garage sale." The sale will be, not only a chance to clean out the garage or basement to get rid of used items, but will be a showcase for a variety of handcrafted articles. More information on the Treasures and Trash sale is available through the Dysart municipal office.

Minden W.I. enjoy pot luck lunch

The members of the Minden Women's Institute met at the Library Culture Center for their Pot Luck Luncheon on June 16 at 12 p.m. President, Jean Cox welcomed the 14 members and eight guests, including the President of Victoria East, Mary MacMaster. Then all enjoyed the tasty salads, rolls and delicious desserts, tea and coffee.

The President called the meeting to order and the usual business was conducted. The President Mary MacMaster thanked us for her invitation and asked us to think about the amalgamation of Victoria East and Victoria West districts. She also asked us about filling one of the vacancies on the slate of officers in Victoria East district. All other items of interest are printed in the Home and Country magazine which we receive four times in a year.

Irene Moore reported sending out ten cards in the last month. Collections for this and Pennies for Friendship were taken. We sang Happy Birthday to Delores Cartmill. New programs for 1999 - 2000 were given out. Many thanks to Carol Cox for printing them. We were reminded about bringing food for the lunch to be served by the Women's Institute at the Library on July 17th, the day of the Garden Tour.

We also discussed quilts for a quilt show on July 31 and August 1 and helpers for the Women's Institute booth. Three draws were made and the winners were Bette Herlihey, Nancy Gayton, and Bev Woods. After Singing the Queen, the meeting adjourned. See you next September.

FLORA FRENZY:

The plants didn't last long at this year's Minden and District Horticultural Society annual plant sale on June 4. Anxious gardeners rushed in, once the barricades were opened, to get the best annuals and perennials the sale had to offer. For those who missed out, there will be another sale in the fall.

Ice cream helps to cool hot week

A warm hello to one and all. How was your week? It sure was a hot one, but as we write this today the weather has certainly cooled off. It gives us all a chance to catch our breath and the rain was certainly welcomed.

We're sure our construction crew outside appreciated the lower temperatures. It sure is good to see the building progressing day by day as we are certainly looking forward to our new facility.

It's time now to tell you about our week. Our tea party on June 10 was very much enjoyed. Our hosts were members of St. Peter's Anglican Church of Maple Lake. We thank them for coming and also Bert Bonnell for his lovely music on piano. Apparently Bert plays the organ at St. Peter's Church.

The following morning we joined Jack and Ruth Worthington for our weekly sing-a-long and that afternoon we were happy to welcome Northern Jam to our Happy Hour. We have mentioned many a time how much we enjoy music. Don't know what we would do without these wonderful groups who come in and entertain us. We believe you can never thank people enough.

Speaking of music, over the weekend we were fortunate to have Gord Kennedy with us. He played some lovely music for us on the piano in the lounge. Other than that, it was a quiet weekend for most of us. We did spot a few visitors calling in. On Monday we had planned on having our pen pals here for our annual get together. This event is looked forward to by us, as well as the grade 5 students who are our pen pals throughout the year. We even had some tasty treats planned. However the heavy rain that day washed out our plans. Our get-together has been rescheduled. Despite our disappointment, we still managed to enjoy the ice cream sundaes which we had planned to share with our guests. We can vouch that they were delicious. Now that this event has been rescheduled we will get to enjoy another round of ice cream sundaes. We told you we love our ice cream.

The following morning quite a few of us joined Reverend Davis at Chapel. That afternoon the craft group met. This group works very hard throughout the year, mostly out of sight. They make many decorations for our special occasions and of course our annual Craft Sale in December. We just wanted them to know we appreciate them. Before we leave the craft group, we want to pass on a big thank you to Velma Stiver. Velma volunteered a lot of her time to our craft group and we want her to know how much we appreciate her time with us.

Our monthly Resident's Council meeting took place yesterday (16th). We had a good group turn out for our meeting. Among the things we discussed were plans for our "Treasures 'N Such" sale that will take place on July 1. We told you about it in last week's column. Hope you marked it on your calendar. There is lots of wonderful stuff, look for our ad in this paper. We are also thinking of some fund-raising projects in the future, so keep an eye on our column. We will let you know what we decide later on. All in all we had a good meeting.

Our Pub Night was very much enjoyed with the music of Ted and Everett. We thank these gentlemen for coming out. We had a fairly good crowd turn out. While we are talking about Pub Night, we still need help, our Pub Night is every Wednesday evening and we certainly could do with some extra hands so please think about it. If you are interested, and we hope someone out there is just contact Linda Robertson here at our home. She will be only to pleased to fill you in.

Now it's Thursday and we're looking forward to our Tea Party. We are having our Birthday Tea a week early this month, as we are planning on a strawberry celebration next week. Our hosts come from the Minden Bible Church.

We wish to extend our sympathy to Muriel Harrison on the recent death of her niece. Lola Prentice was unable to join our Roving Reporters group today so we did not get the low down on the celebration of her birthday and her great grandson's wedding. We did however find out that she greatly enjoyed everything and all went well. We will have to find out later.

Guess that's it for now. Have yourself a good week. Hope all you Dads enjoyed your special day. Bye for now.

Around the County Town

by Nora Snyder (call 286-4450 or fax 286-4425)

What a time of extremes!! That weekend of heat was quite something!! I personally don't do very well in temperatures and humidity like that. But then to experience such coolness....the next morning it was 5 Celsius. Hard to figure and hard to cope with!! Through the heat I had friends visiting which made it nicer to bear together. We didn't move too fast but stayed still and got caught up on our lives.

They are shoppers though so went off to Main Street during Timbersport, which they enjoyed, in spite of the heat and which they viewed between dipping into stores. They arrived back with some great treasures and were very pleased with the day. Then if that wasn't enough of a treat, a few days later, another friend came up for an overnight, just to have a bit of a break from the routine. We went off touring the county, this time dressed warmly, and we ended up at the Wolf Centre, which I had wanted to visit for a long time. It was as wonderful as I had hoped. In the compound we saw all the wolves who are living there, including three tiny babies who pestered all the other wolves for play time. Apparently they are taught the pecking order of the pack a little later but certainly were not aware of it when we were there. So I had a wonderful week of friends and also some new experiences.

My youngest daughter from Vancouver is visiting for a few days, so I am blessed all round!! Life is going to feel dull after all these visits!! Not for long though as summer fast approaches. Bookings are fast filling up, as people plan their summer holidays. Let us hope we all have a good, prosperous summer.

The Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 636, is planning a project to enhance the area around the Cairn. A mural will be painted behind the Cairn, on the wall of the Library/Art Gallery Complex. The grounds around the area will be landscaped and beautified. The members of the Legion are planning ways to raise money for this endeavour. It is hoped the community will rise to the occasion to help support this effort as the Cairn represents our history and will help to honour those who gave their lives for us. Donations will be gratefully accepted to help this effort. As a kick-off to this project, a fundraiser breakfast will be held on June 26, 8:30 to 10:00 a.m., at the Minden Legion. The cost is by donation and all the proceeds will go towards the Legion Mural.

The Minden Horticultural Society has a new home for it's monthly meetings. They will be held at the Minden Community Centre upstairs. Everyone is invited to the next meeting on July 6 at 7:15 p.m. Pat Campbell will be the guest speaker. She will guide the members and interested people through arranging entries for the Flower Show. She will also be bringing along supplies to help make your own arranging easier. It's strawberry season so bring along your favourite dessert for the lunch after the meeting. See you there!!

I am becoming more aware of our logging heritage of the area, especially after visiting the Logging Museum in Algonquin Park a few weeks ago. The recent Timbersport competition and "Wonderful Wood" show at the Agnes Jamieson Gallery also brought to mind the community's historical roots. Here is another piece from the Haliburton Highlands Genealogy Group that expands on that theme:

"Pushing back the wilderness to create farms was imperative, the forest was an obstacle to overcome. At first it must have seemed an impossible task, but year by year it fell back before the settler's axe blades, I doubt that those engaged in this never ending struggle counted the consequences of their advance, as anything but success.

Every farmer for the first few years was chiefly a lumberman burning the timber instead of using it, saving enough suitable wood to build a home, buildings for stock, fencing and domestic use. Ashes which could be sold to a potash maker, were the first "cash crop" for many pioneer farmers, some wood ash would be saved by the women to make lye, which was a necessary component in the making of soap.

Our "second growth" timber really does not give us an idea of the extensive forests and huge trees of former times, thousands of beautiful trees including butternut, walnut, bird's-eye maple and many other varieties, common at the time were piled in huge heaps and burned. Timber was something to be got rid of as quickly as possible.

When regulations to control the felling of the forests were drawn up, they were intended to impose order on the exploitation, and to turn lumber into a cash crop; not to conserve the forest."

Wishing everyone a great week; what ever comes our way!!

SCORING NEWS

The Friendship Club at St. Paul's had a good turnout last Monday. Isabel Cherwenka won lone hands. Helen Lee was high man and Gladys Wruth was high woman. Joyce Ritchie took the hidden score. Laura Carnegie was low man and Lucille Houghton was low woman. Bill Mosley won the 50/50 draw. St Paul's looks great with their spring and summer flowers all planted by some of the Church women. I saw them out there one evening, getting them all in!!

Thursday evening, June 11, at the Minden Legion, Elva Paisley and Norm Lee won the most lone hands at Euchre. Gala Stamp and K. Maloney were the high scorers. Vicki Campagnolo and Harvey Bunker took the lows. Helen Skelding, Orval Francis, Ed Hisson and Lois Adamson won the other prizes.

Friday evening, June 12, at Club 35, playing Bid Euchre, Don Burch took the only moonshot. High Pinks were: Margaret Fletcher with 302; Edith Burch with 227; and Olive Jones with 224. The High Whites were: Norm Lee, 257; Frank Campagnolo, 239; and Jim Skinner, 232. Stan Walters won the hidden score. There were four door prizes won that night.

Last Monday at Club 35, playing Euchre, David Lamb won the 50/50 draw. Mary Pearson won lone hands. High scores were won by Jeanne Penick and Cliff Woolner. Low scores were taken by Marilyn Teljeur and Ken Pypher. Mary Pearson won baloney. Two special awards were taken home by Rhoda Woolner and Ken Pypher.

Finally Marg and I met on the phone instead of by machine!! Marg gives me the Cribbage and Senior Bid Euchre scores from the Minden Legion. At cribbage, last Monday evening, Verna McDonald, Brenda DeGuire and Joey Hevey earned the top scores. Marie Dennie, Georgina Parkes and Ed Hisson won the draws.

At Seniors Bid Euchre, played on Tuesday afternoon, Norm Lee, Elva Paisley, Margaret Fletcher and Gala Stamp were top scorers. Esther Lee won the hidden score. Norm Lee, Gala Stamp and Milton Fletcher each won a moonshot.

Speaking of Gala Stamp, she phoned in the Bid Euchre scores from Stanhope last Wednesday evening as usual. Last week was their Potluck which was delicious and everyone ate too much!! Ten moonshots were won the night. The top scores were: Jean Scadden, 288; Marcel Roussel, 290; Jim Skinner, 291; Muriel Harrington, 298; and Dorothy Walters the highest with 308.

On June 11 at Echo Hills, playing Duplicate Bridge, Muriel McIntosh and Ross Fletcher were first with 64%. Vange Croucher and Stella McMillan were second with 60%. There was a tie for third with 56% for the teams of Wynne and Morris Hansen and Mayme Douglas and Reet Murray.

At Stanhope, on Tuesday afternoon, playing Contract Bridge, a grand slam was bid and made by the Crouchers!! Congratulations!! Those Crouchers seem pretty hard to beat, except that Jack has a hard time keeping up with Vange!! She beat him out by forty points to take second place; he with 5650 and she with 5690. Jack must be very well adjusted and calm to take it all!! In forth place was Helen Rice with 5580 and on top of the heap, Gertrud Saamen with 6870, way ahead of the pack.

At Park Lane last Thursday afternoon, playing Duplicate Bridge, in North /South, Nick Lehoczy and Mike Collins were first with 63%, and Lourene Scott and Joan Galley in second with 60%. East/West saw Gertrud and Hans Saamen first, with 58% and Vera Carnochan and Mayme Douglas second, with 55%.

Good wishes for good cards this week. See you here next time!!

IN MEMORIAM

PROCENKO, Michael - In memory of a dear son and brother taken from us June 23, 1978.
A fervent wish our Michael was here

*There are others, yes, we know,
But he was ours, we loved him so.
Dear God take a message
To our son in heaven,
Tell him how much we miss him
And give him all our love.
Lovingly remembered,
Mom, Dad and Lisa.*

PROCENKO, Michael - In
memory of a dear wee friend lost to us June 23, 1978.
*Always in our hearts
The Beers Family.*

GREER - Byard and Myrtle -
In loving memory of a dear Father and Mother, as well as dear Grandparents who were taken from us on June 22, 1978 and June 20, 1994 respectively.

*It's been a while since you've been gone
And we're still unable to say so long.*

*Our hearts still hurt and tears
still fall
Wishing you both were here with us all.*

There's not a day we don't think of you

*Sometimes it makes us happy
And Sometimes we feel blue.
But one thing will always be true
We will always love and miss you.*

Always remembered and sadly missed by
